June 2022

What is Industrial & Commercial Ministries – ICM?

---

Industrial and Commercial Ministries is an ecumenical, volunteer organization with the mission to share the message of God's care and compassion with all persons in the workplace. ICM provides, upon request and invitation by the employer, trained volunteer chaplains for the workplace and its employees. ICM Chaplains are trained clergy and laypersons of various denominations who live and work in the local community. Individuals from all walks of life can become a caring ICM Chaplain. Our Chaplains visit the facility for a committed set of hours, one day a week and are on call for any emergency that may need their presence. The purpose is not to worship or interfere with labor, but to be "a caring presence" and available to the working people.

If you know of anyone who would make a good ICM Chaplain please contact the ICM National office or your local ICM Placement Officer listed below.
